Subject: EH outstanding

Hi

Regarding the list of outstanding confirmed physician contacts.....I need direction on a couple of them....

One is that lady who we understood was developmentally delayed. I reviewed some of recent EH record and I don't see any indication of this.....

I guess what I'm saying is that we need to chat about a few of them...one lady won't be home until may 30....a few others we are still trying to reach....
