Hi,

Yes, you are right...the background is attached below. I guess one of the arguments in our defence of the claim will be that [REDACTED] and the other two lady's cases are unrelated to ER/PR.....it makes a good story and Ches has to get the word out to increase the number of patients registered in the class action.

Hi,

I've attached a briefing note I did up on Friday regarding our latest development. Meetings for 4 of the five people affected will be taking place on Wednesday.

I'm off but I'm around all Monday if you need to chat, page me
